

Margaritaville Ocho Rios opens this week

ONE OF the world's and indeed Jamaica's hottest Entertainment spots, Margaritaville is currently expanding and has made a new addition to the Margaritaville chain. Margaritaville Ocho Rios will boast features of both Margaritaville MoBay and Margaritaville Negril, her sister properties. The new addition is approximately 18,000 square feet and is able to seat about 450 persons. The upper floor has been designed and decorated to look and feel like Havana, Cuba and has one bar. Each night there will be live band playing on the upper floor. The lower floor has three bars including a pool bar and restaurant. There will be nightly club entertainment beginning at 10:00 p.m. and of course day parties. There is a magnificent pool and waterslide as well as a Jacuzzi. Margaritaville Ocho Rios also boasts a beautiful white sand beach. Entrepreneurs extraordinaire Brian Jardim and Ian Dear and their excellent team have a treat in store for Jamaica and the world as they unveil Jamaica's latest tourism attraction.

Contents provided by Tourism Marketing Associates

Roger Brown (left) of Island Jamaica and Katherine May, Interior Designer for Margaritaville listen attentively to a point being made by Jimmy Buffet during his recent tour of Margaritaville.

Prime Minister P.J. Patterson, (right) greets Ian Dear and Brian Jardim, (centre) partners in M'ville at the recent opening of the Island Village in Ocho Rios.

Roger Brown (right), Director of Finance and Development at Island Jamaica and Chris Blackwell (left) are amazed by the magnificent pool and waterslide at Margaritaville Ocho Rios.